East End Library Storytelling Festival!

It's our Summer Reading Kickoff!

Join us for an event-filled day with workshops, a story swap, a story concert and more. Pick up your reading BINGO card and get started!

"Want to learn how to tell a story? Have a story that you want to tell? Join us! Whether you want to perform for your friends and neighbors in the community, or just want to enjoy some good food and entertaining tales, you will do it all. The workshops will be held at the East End Branch, and the actual storytelling festival will be in the field across 25th Street from the branch.

10:30-12:00 - Story telling workshops for adults and kids

Lunch Break! The "Grilled Meats and Sweet Treats" food truck will be here for people to purchase lunch.

12:45-2:15 - Open Mic Story Swap - No experience necessary!

2:15-3:30 - Storytelling Showcase

Storytellers Les Schaffer and Judith Onesty I will lead a storytelling workshop for children and... Church Hill's own Rachel Pater from the Richmond Story House will lead a workshop for adults.

Workshops are free, but you must register in advance to take part. Please call East End Library, 804-646-4474. Lunch will be provided for Workshop participants, so that they can get ready to participate in the Open Mic Story Swap in the afternoon!
