Peaceful
Families

5:30-7:30P

Community Family Dinner | Carlisle Ave. Baptist Church | 2010 Carlisle Ave., Richmond

Let's break bread together! Sharing a meal is a powerful way of bringing families and communities together to strengthen connections and build a sense of belonging for our youth. The Community Family Dinner will offer families a free meal and family friendly activities.

6:00-7:30P

Healthy Co-Parent Relationships | Southside Community Services Center | 4100 Hull St., Richmond
Healthy Co-Parent Relationships is an interactive workshop that educates parents on how to build and manage parenting relationships. Participants will have the opportunity to explore what a healthy co-parenting relationship looks like for them, how to navigate a co-parenting relationship, and learn about the support resources and services that are available in their community. Refreshments will be provided.

6:00-7:30P

You(th) are the Solution: Youth Conversation | Northside YMCA | 4207 Old Brook Rd., Richmond
Youth are the Solution! This event is a youth led conversation that will directly engage young people in open dialogue about violence in their communities. To empower youth voices and action in the fight to end youth violence, young people will develop solutions and recommendations that promote change. Youth will have the opportunity to interact, discuss, and problem solve, collectively.

5:30-7:30P

Combating Bullying Workshop | Bellemeade Community Center | 1800 Lynhaven Ave., Richmond
This event sponsored by Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Alpha Phi Zeta Chapter & ART 180, will raise awareness of the effects that bullying has on our community and provide education around new solutions to prevent it from happening to Richmond's youth. There will be an interactive art activity led by Teens from ART 180 to engage parents and young people to envision a world without bullying. Door prizes and refreshments will be provided.

5:00-8:30P

The Hate U Give- Movie Screening | The Byrd Theater | 2908 W. Cary St, Richmond
Based off the New York Times bestseller book by Angie Thomas, The Hate U Give is about a teenage girl who has to try to fit into two different worlds. Facing a tragic experience, she must use her voice to empower change and stand up against the hate and violence that is all around her. This screening is free and open to the public. Seating will be limited. (Rated PG-13)

5:30-7:30P

Pathways to Opportunities | Huguenot Community Center | 7945 Forrest Hill Ave., Richmond
Pathways to Opportunities is a networking event that will connect the young leaders of Richmond to professionals from a wide list of professions in a relaxed youth friendly environment. The activities developed will establish connections between youth and professionals whose interests match for the purpose of career exploration. Both professionals and youth will have the opportunity to sign up on-site to participate in the Mayor's Youth Academy Summer Work Experience Program.

5:30-8:00P

Youth Matter Showcase | Pine Camp Arts & Community Center | 4901 Old Brook Road, Richmond
The Youth Matter Showcase is a non-competitive event at which youth are offered stage time to present their skills and talents. This is an opportunity to highlight our young people and the value that they add to the City of Richmond. The event will feature performances, artwork, visuals, and more. If you have a talent that you would like to include in the show, contact inspireworkgroup@gmail.com.

4:30-8:00P

Unite in Action Day | Six Points Innovation Center | 3001 Meadowbridge Rd, Richmond, VA
To commemorate the resilient spirit of our youth and families, join the INSPIRE Workgroup for free, music and hip-hop karaoke, games, & fun! INSPIRE is inviting all youth, families, community members, and youth-serving partners for this special day. We will unite in action by wearing ORANGE. The first 250 youth will receive a #804foryouth T-shirt and concession ticket!
