

VINTAGE VIRGINIA

Wrought in Richmond

Walk with us while we explore the cast and wrought iron porches, fences and gates that form part of Richmond's rich architectural legacy.

Second only to that of New Orleans, Richmond's decorative ironwork ranges from elegant to ornate to downright eccentric. James O'Neil, of OK Foundry, will shed light on the design, manufacture and talent behind Richmond's ornamental iron industry.

Sunday, November 17th
Tour, Talk & Refresh 2-4 pm

Participation limited; RSVP to Jennie Dotts, 804.370.6565

Meet us at the corner of 5th and E. Main streets at 2pm. Light refreshments and discussion to follow at Rubin Peacock Bronzes in the downtown Arts District.
